T.I. LINKS WITH OTHER ENTERTAINERS TO CONTRIBUTE "SAVING OUR DAUGHTERS"

10.15.08

Rapper T.I. is one of six black male entertainers who have contributed to "Saving Our Daughters: From a Man's Point of View," a collection of personal stories that address several issues impacting young girls and single mothers today. One of those issues is domestic violence. T.I.P. had the chance to sit down with Essence Magazine and highlight some particular issues he covered in the book. "I witnessed domestic abuse once as a child, when I was about 8-years old. I stepped in to protect my mom from one of her boyfriends, so I know how that can affect a child and that's definitely nothing that anyone would ever want their child to encounter," T.I. stated. "I hope they (parents) will understand the importance of being involved in young ladies lives in order for them to blossom into prosperous, productive, positive mothers, students, wives, and citizens in society," he added.
